

Chapan (man's robe)

Date

Late 19th- early 20th C.

Medium

Silk, lined with cotton, warp-faced plain weave, lining is plain weave.

Description

Arabic man's coat (aba) or shaped garment made up of three main pieces and sleeves that are straight and close-fitting with gussets. Collar stands 1/2 " high and trimmed with black cording. Sleeves are rounded and slit and are trimmed similarly at the cuff. There is one deep side pocket. Fabric is red, yellow, green, and white vertical stripes. Lined with white fabric.

Dimensions

161.3 x 139.7 cm (63 1/2 x 55 in.)